The figure is a detailed location plan for a residential development. It shows a large area of land with a grid of points. A road, Worthing Road, runs diagonally across the site. The development is shown as a cluster of buildings with internal roads and parking areas. A north arrow is located in the upper left. The plan includes labels for 'Open Space' and 'Brookfield Park'. The drawing is a technical site plan at a scale of 1:2500.
