Dear Anita

As discussed, I can confirm the applicants agreement for an extension of time to allow a decision to be made on or before 18th January 2018.

I trust that this is satisfactory, and I look forward to hearing from you next week.

Best regards,

Hi Tim,

My break was OK, apart from feeling unwell. Hope you had a good Christmas and a Happy New Year to you too.

I have been on sick leave and will get back to you regarding your e-mail and progress of the application hopefully at the beginning of next week. I'd like to speak to Juan first. To facilitate this discussion I would appreciate your agreement to an extension of time for a further 2 weeks until 25-01-2018.

Regards

Anita Gardner

Dear Anita

Happy new year. I hope you had a great break over the festive period.

I understand from your colleagues that you are out of the office until Wednesday 10th January. On your return, my clients and I would be extremely grateful if you could provide us with an update in respect of the above planning application – specifically in relation to the queries contained in my previous email of 20th December (please see below).

I look forward to hearing from you as soon as possible.

Best regards,

TIM RODWAY

Hi Anita

I hope you are well.

I refer to the above planning application. Following my further submissions, specifically in respect of the comments made by Council's Business Development Manager, please can you provide me with an update on the application?

I note that the Town Council have confirmed that they have no objection to the revised planning application. Is it likely that it will now be a delegated decision? What are your timescales?

In addition, my email of 28th November outlined a query I had with respect to financial contributions. I would be grateful if you could come back to me on this.

Best regards,
