Dear Mrs Johnson

With regard to the above application I know that you await the planning fee from the applicant and I am writing to explain the delay. The Applicant has been delayed abroad and will not be returning until the end of this month. Upon their return a cheque will be raised and delivered to Arun D C as required, As previously explained, there was some doubt when enquiries were made to ADC prior to the application and we were advised to omit any fee from the submission. I hope that this explains the situation and that you can hold the application pending the fee.

Regards
