Dear Michael, Thank you for referring this matter for my attention, upon which I make comment as below.

Environmental Health: No objection in so far as the integrity of the acoustic barrier is maintained. This particularly relates to ensuring no gaps to the base, hinge points and closing points of such gates and to the ongoing proper maintenance of such.

Hello Michael

Please find attached amended landscape drawings which deal with the queries raised below.

Acoustically treated gates have been added to the acoustic barrier, which will enable access to the maintenance areas. They will not impact on the barriers integrity. The micro-siting of the barrier will not have a significant effect of the noise reduction subject to maintaining a continuous barrier.

With regards to maintenance this will be the responsibility of WSCC who will adopt the road.

Finally planting has been amended accordingly.

Kind Regards
Laura
