The best option for us is for you to prepare a document detailing the specific types of materials to be used (including photos/images), rather than providing actual samples. Yes, could you prepare this for all finishes.

To clarify, although I noted our preference for PVC windows, I would expect the Conservation Officer to request timber frames, or at a minimum, heritage style uPVC.

You may wish to email the Officer directly at martyn.white@arun.gov.uk to ask this question, or submit your preference in the first instance; however, this may result in an initial refusal if he objects.

NB. We emailed the Conservation Officer 2 times but did not receive a response.
