Subject: Old Vicarage Cottage.- fence

I would like to object to the retrospective application for planning permission for the new fence in front of the Old Vicarage Cottage, Lyminster Road, Lyminster.

The reasons for the objections are as follows:

- a) The fence has been erected on public land as its is not on the property's ground
- b) The fence is too high and appears oppressive in the pretty village
- c) The old flint wall that compliments the house, is now obscured.

A fence, or better still a natural hedge, within the bounds of the property leaving the old flint wall visible would be acceptable.

Regards

Ian Camburn,
