Hi Sian

I have made a scaled drawing through the earth bund, as shown on the revised Site Plan. Through section AA.

Thank you for your assistance.

Dear Mark

Thank you for your email. Those plans are all fine now, however we still require a section/elevation of the earth bund. I have attached a similar drawing for guild lines. The drawing does not need to be the whole of the earth bund it just needs to show a section like below and does not need to be detailed it just needs to show the height annotated onto it as a dimension. The drawing needs to be to scale i.e. 1:100 or 1:50. There are other examples on google to help with this.

Please let me know if I can help any further

Kind Regards

Sian

Good day Sian

I have attached some revised plans with measurements. Please let me know if there is any thing else that you require.

Regards
