Dear Sir / Madam,

I am writing to let you know how I feel about the Arundel Brewhouse Project. I've seen Arundel Brewery go from strength to strength over the years with a quality and consistency that makes them stand out but also helps them keep up with their competitors across the UK !

I feel that Stuart and Samantha Walker have the business skills and people skills which shows in what they have achieved at the Brewery. This is why the Brewhouse Project is something that I feel they can make a great success off ! I feel this would not only develop the Brewery but it would also be a standout attraction to the area as it would be an original forward thinking project that would establish Arundel as an important place for beer drinkers ! The southern ale trail is put Worthing on the map for people passionate and real ale so it would be great for a similar thing to happen in Arundel!

I hope to hear from you soon.

David Ross.
