Hi Andy,
Time flies. I can't believe two years have elapsed since I last visited the vineyard.

I do not need to visit this year unless anything significant has changed. I would be grateful if you could confirm whether it is still a hobby operation and what, if any, changes have been made to plantings.

If you have started selling grapes or wine then I may need to visit you but otherwise I will leave it and see you again in two years time.

Look forward to hearing from you but if you have any queries please give me a call.

Regards,
