Dear David,

I refer to your email of this morning. I have discussed this matter with my client, and he has confirmed his agreement to the requested extension of time. I trust that this is satisfactory.

I look forward to receiving formal confirmation of the Committee arrangements in due course.

Best regards,

TIM RODWAY

Dear Mr Rodway,

I write in relation to the above planning application which will be presented at Development Control Committee (DCC) on the 23rd August with a recommendation for approval.

Given the need for this application to be presented at DCC the application will go beyond its expiry date. Therefore, I would be grateful if you could provide written confirmation of your agreement to an extension of time until the 25th August 2017.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you wish to discuss this matter further.

Yours Sincerely,
David Easton
