Mr Baeza,

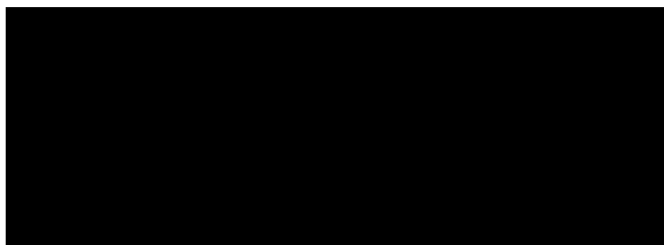

Further to various comments which have been submitted online relating to this planning application, we can confirm there is absolutely no intention for the upgraded and enhanced detached building to be used as a separate unit of residential accommodation. The building would be entirely used as ancillary accommodation to the main house. Please find attached drawing 688-SK01C which now shows the entire first floor as a Sitting Room – can this please be substituted for the previously submitted version.

Regards,

Phil.
