Hello

Apologies but we have been informed that access needs to be included on all plans with a shared driveway. The plan is correct however can the red outline be drawn around the location plan as well as the block plan. Once received I will make the application valid and upload it today.

Thanks

Sian

Hello

I did not have to show this on my last application to Arun (July 2018) but for expediency please confirm the attachment as OK.

Rgds

Dear Chris

Thank you for your email however your application is still invalid for the following reason:

Location Plan: It is a national requirement that the red outline is required to include the application site and all land necessary to carry out the development, i.e. land required for access. In this case the entire drive needs to be included within the red outline so the outline needs to be extended from where it says 'existing access' around the drive down to 'existing access from old point'. Please review and amend accordingly;

Kind Regards

Sian Eggington
