Dear Sir/Madam

I want to object to the planning of at least 600 houses on Boscawen Lane.

FF 1274 21/07 - existing golf course

M 116 22/01 - new proposed course near Aylesbury Lane

Aylesbury has a golf course and a magnificent 'Ancient Wood' and ancient people and the environment.

There are ancient trees, deer, foxes, a badger and hundreds of birds (including a nesting cuckoo) on this area and it would be a tragedy if all this was to be wiped out.

What happens to the idea that the environment and countryside and its wildlife has a numerical value of its own to set against the value of houses and roads?

And, I object to the ruin of this ancient area.

Yours faithfully,
