Hi Andrew,

I gather you are on holiday now until the 31st July, but please find attached a landscaping details for the road boundary at Middleton House as discussed. I hope this is what you were anticipating and more than happy to chat through as necessary when you return.

In terms of materials, there are some considerations in terms of the project cost plan and as such we can probably agree to specify that the 'bricks and tiles to match existing' but matters of window material details and alike would probably on this occasion (although I really appreciate the sentiment on avoiding pre-commencement conditions!) would be better as conditions at this time, so that my brother can settle the material choices and cost plan considerations and then submit suitable details to you for discharge.

I hope that is ok and more than happy to talk through.

PS I hope you had a lovely break!

Kind regards
Jo
