Juan

I confirm I have had a request from Cllr Paul Wotherspoon that this HH application goes before DC and I agree.

Dear Cllr Wotherspoon

Can you please confirm that you have put your request to the Chairman and/or vice chairman of the Development Control Committee. So that this application gets determined by committee, in line with part 4, 3.1.2 iv of the constitution, the written request needs to be made by you to them before the end of the statutory consultation period which in this case is the 17 May 2018.

Dear Cllr Wotherspoon,

Strictly speaking your written request should go to the Chairman & Vice- Chairman of the DC Committee (see part 4, 3.1.2 iv of constitution). However, I have copied them into this reply so they are aware. I will ask the case officer to action your request.

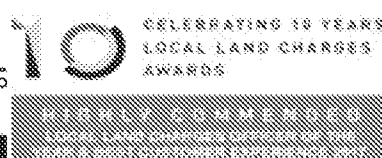

I trust you will attend the committee to advise members of your views.

Regards

Karl

Hi Karl

Middleton-on-Sea Parish Council oppose the above application on the following grounds:

1. It's out of character with the street scene;
2. The building will be too high and out of keeping with neighbouring properties;
3. The proposals will, if implemented, adversely affect the Area of Special Character and
4. It will constitute over development.

May I ask you please to make the necessary arrangements to list the application for consideration by our Development Control Committee.

Thank you

Best regards

Paul
