Dear Mr Moore,

Just to notify you they are once again changing the date of the committee back to the 21st July. Notifications should be with you shortly.

I don't believe that we have agree an extension of time to cover the committee, would it be possible to confirm you are happy to delay the decision until up to the 23rd of July?

Kind regards,

Kathryn Welch

Dear Chris,

Just to make you aware the Council currently they are looking at bringing the committee meeting forward to the 7th July. This has not been 100% confirm yet however when I know for definite I'll pass the information on. I wanted to warn you to look out for any impending emails relating to registering to speak, which I believe will need to be out by this Monday if this new deadline is to be met.

Kind regards,

Hi Chris,

Having just spoken to our validation team, the letters for agents were sent out around 6pm last night and were the first letter to be sent out. Did you receive the original email to register to speak as the cancellation letter would have gone to the same address. I wouldn't have thought a 2nd email would have gone into spam, but have you check there?

Kind regards,

Hi Kathryn,

That is a shame. I understand the issues with Covid but I am confused as to why a third party has had notification of this whereas neither myself as agent nor the applicant had been informed?

Is there any particular reason?

Kind regards,

Chris Moore

Dear Mr Moore,

Many thanks for your enquiry.

I can confirm that the committee meeting set for the 23rd of June has been postponed, a knock on effect from the covid restrictions. It is anticipated that your application will become part of the next scheduled meeting on 21st July, when the members will once again be able to meet in person.

I apologise for the delay but as you can imagine working practices are still returning to normal after recent events. With that in mind could I get you to agree a second extension of time to cover this delay. Would it be possible for you to confirm in writing a new decision date of the 23rd July 2021.

Many thanks for your patience,

Kathryn Welch

Dear Kathryn and Dan,

A neighbour of the applicant has received a letter – detail below. Please can you confirm the situation as I have heard nothing to say the application is no longer going to committee?
