Dear Liz,

I have now received the file back with the plans substituted. I will pass the application through for further consideration by the team leader. Please can you agree to an extension of time until Friday 25-08-2017 to allow time for this to take place

Thanks

Anita

Dear Liz,

I acknowledge receipt of the revised plans which will be substituted for the originals.

If I receive the application back tomorrow I will pass it through to a Team Leader for consideration, but DC Committee is tomorrow and with only one Team Leader in I can't confirm when it will be looked at.

Regards

Anita

MOST URGENT ATTENTION – SENIOR PLANNING OFFICER

The attached drawing shows a change to the proposed balcony side panel for the above application. The due decision date was 11th August 2017. Mr Wood has been handling this case and has recently asked my colleague, Kathryn Welch, for a change to make the side opaque glazed panel at 1700mm high, to enable approval. Our client has agreed to this change and the amended drawing is attached. On Friday 19th August however, another of my colleagues, Gail Hodgson, was informed by Mr Wood that the application was written up for approval, but he advised not to inform our client until the decision was actually published. (I agree with this stance). I also understand that Andrew Wood indicated to Kathryn that he would not be getting a decision out on this until at least 8th September, although a formal extension of time has not been agreed.

I am now confused, and concerned, that we may have further delay in obtaining the decision, which we understood was to be positive, and which is now well overdue. I am informed that both Andrew Wood and Juan Baeza are on holiday this week when I would have expected a decision to be made. I have phoned the Planning Office and was asked to send an email.

Whilst I appreciate the pressure the Planning Officer and Officers are under, I am hopeful that this matter can be dealt with as it is so close to decision, and Andrew had indicated to Gail that the decision had been made. Please could this be dealt with as a matter of urgency, in Andrew and Juan's absence. Our client has been refurbishing this property throughout the process of the Planning Application for the balcony and this item is now holding up the completion.

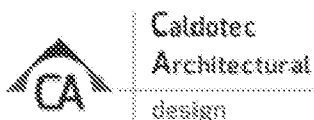

I would appreciate an urgent response.

Thanks and kind regards

Liz
