Hi,

I need to withdraw this application,

Do I put in a full planning application or a certificate of existing use ?

Kind Regards,

Hi,
This could be useful against a full application or a certificate of existing use but not as proof to what was originally granted. If you can obtain the info, do. However, it won't have any bearing on this application.

With regards to an appeal, you are entitled to appeal should you wish, however, the onus of proof is always on the applicant. The council have a duty to cooperate and have to disclose any information we find but that is as far as our duties go. As you know I have attempted to get information from the historic records, if times were different this might have helped. I say might because actually my past experience shows that the historic records are patchy, there wasn't the emphasis on records like we have today.

Kind regards,

Kathryn

Hi Kathryn,

The company that installed the floodlights was Peter Teale Ltd ,they don't exist anymore.

Highlights replaced all the bulbs to date and have invoiced for 5 bulbs per tower,

Each bulb being 2kw, each tower being 10kw.

I have spoken to them and I can obtain proof from Highlights to what was there and what is there now.

Please advise if this will help ?...

Also is it worth appealing the decision as you said you had microfiche of the evidence but couldn't read it.

Regards
Stephen

Good Morning and Happy New Year to you.

At the moment as I don't have the evidence required I'm looking to refuse the application unless its withdrawn. In either case it means that a full planning application would need to be submitted in order for the works to be undertaken.

Let me know as soon as possible, if you would prefer not to obtain the refusal and wish to withdraw the application.

Kind regards
Kathryn

Hi,
No I have a copy of the decision, it's the documentation surrounding this application which I haven't been able to locate. If you have any of this it may clarify condition 3 attached to this decision notice. It's the issue of the 10kw; is it per tower or for the whole site? The documentation may show us this information.

Do you agree to an extension of time?

Kind regards,
Kathryn

Subject: Fwd:

Dear Mr Cleall,

I've just been informed that we can offer an extension of time on the application. If we make the revised determination date the 6th January that should give you time to find the evidence required.

As discussed yesterday I require proof that the original planning application for the flood lighting, approved in '87, gave each lighting tower an allowance of 10kw, or if this allowance was a total across all the lighting towers. If you have a copy of the original application this may provide the evidence required.

Unfortunately, I am not in a position to assume that the 10kw allowance was for each tower, hence the need for the evidence.

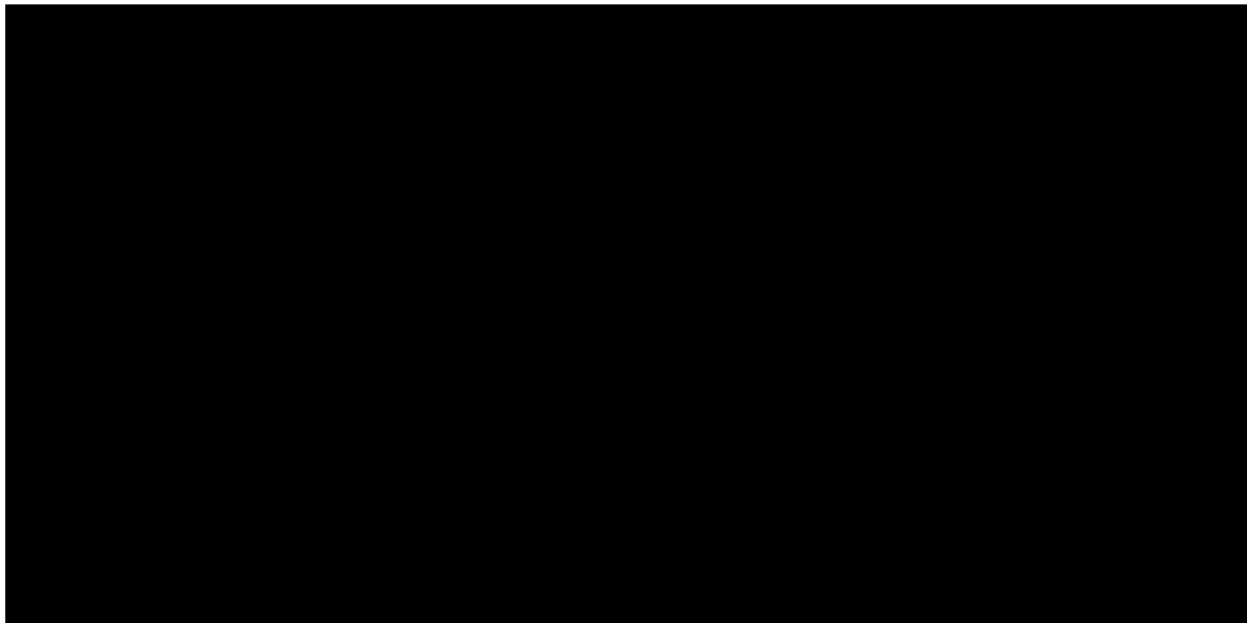

I would be grateful if you would provide written confirmation, by return email, that the revised determination date is suitable for you.

Kind regards

Kathryn
