Good Afternoon Simon,

I have previously emailed Daniel Vick regarding all the responses to the questions sent through to Trevor in our office.

However, I have not had a response as to whether an extension of time has been requested or whether we can expect the response back by the original date. I tried to call Daniel and he appears to be out of the office until next week.

Would it be possible at all for you to see if an extension of time is required and when we will receive the response.

Thank you for your help.

Kind Regards,

Rebecca Willard
