Hi Lee,

I just wanted to get in contact and express my sincere apologies for the delay in getting in contact and lack of contact. I recall last time we spoke that I was writing up your application for approval – which I had done ahead of the expiration of the public expiry on 26 March 2020. Between this time and now we have come up against Covid-19 and we have all had our working arrangements becoming somewhat altered. Infuriatingly from my perspective, this is written up as an approval and is ready to go. The application is due to expire today and I would therefore be grateful if you could agree to an extension of time until Tuesday 21 April 2020?

This will enable me to submit the application to my line manager, my line manager to review the application and then process the decision notice.

Please accept my sincerest apologies for this delay but I hope this application can be resolved at the start of next week.

I look forward to hearing from you in due course.

Kindest regards,
