

Dear Ms Toppin

I have been notified by Arun District Council of a decision in relation to P/120/20/T. Upon checking the outcome to report the same to the Parish Council, I note your Officer Report states there were no comments from the Parish Council. This is not correct – comments were submitted and were placed on file. In this instance, we objected to the proposed works prior to their consideration by the tree officer. His comments and ours were in agreement, and I note the contentious works were removed from the application by the applicant. However, it is important that the Parish Council and our residents can see that our comments are noted and taken into account by officers when determining applications. I would be grateful if you would place a copy of this email on the planning file.

Best wishes

Nicola
