Dear Mr Cole

As you are aware application P/24/20 RES was refused by Arun District council on 26/6/20 and it is unknown whether or not the applicant appealed that decision although it is noted that the time limit for such an appeal has now expired.

Given this, it is frankly impossible to understand how Arun District Council feels able to properly consider and determine applications made to discharge conditions imposed on the only planning permission for the site (Outline planning permission P/134/16 OUT) when it is entirely unclear whether or not that OPP can be lawfully implemented and/or if so how the applicant intends to do so.

Perhaps you would care to enlighten us all in these regards?
