Dear Simon

Many Thanks for your email and apologies for the delay; due to staff illness and Covid adjustments to our working practices.

I have been trying to review this case, and to assess whether the archaeological condition can be discharged, but to do so I need to see a copy of the WSI for archaeological recording. I cannot see it on the website, unless I have missed it, in which case my apologies and perhaps you can pinpoint me to the correct page?

I have spoken to James Kenny (Chichester Archaeological Officer) today and he is looking at his records to see if he has a copy to hand. The WSI should however have been submitted formally and be available to view through the publically available planning portal. James will know today if he has a copy, otherwise I will need to see it via the website, or a copy direct from yourself or the applicant. I am likely to be in agreement with James that we can approve it, but do need to see a copy first.

Kindest Regards

Rebecca
