Good morning Simon

I'm just putting together a response to the Pagham Beach Holdings letter.

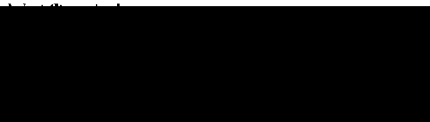

One of the questions was about labelling of the rooms on the floor plan on the planning portal: it looks as if he's right that the plans publicly available on the ocella web pages do not have room labelling. Turns out these were sent to your department in error and a second set were then sent to correct that, with the rooms properly labelled.

Could you arrange for these to be substituted so that this is all made clear?

Many thanks

Andrew

Dear Andrew,

I would suggest that you reply direct to Pagham Beach Holdings but also cc me in. I will then add your reply to the website files. Should you feel the need to change any plans/provide any new ones then I will also get these changes on the system.

Kind Regards
