Dear Jonathan,

I have been advised by a local resident that the builders are at roof level on plots 8 & 9. I have just now compared the approved and proposed plans for these plots (and for 5 & 6) and it appears that these 4 proposed altered dwellings will have a 0.55m higher ridge. Can you confirm this is correct and can you also advise whether the developer is building to the proposed or approved schemes?

Kind Regards
