Susan,

Apologies for the lack of scale on the plan which I have now added.

The max. 4.00 metres refers to the height of the extension and not the porch.

The ridge length you indicate on your 'red' marked plan is 3.00 metres the same as the extension's projection.

Hope this makes everything more clear if not come back to me.

Dear Mr Butcher

Good afternoon

I have begun looking at application P/160/25/HH and noticed that the plan 'Sheet 2a of 4' was not scaling as per the scale stated. Please could you check if the plans have been saved in a format that our software can measure and also add a scale for each of the sections. I have attached a copy to show you what I am referring to.

Once amended, please me directly and I can update against the application.

Kind regards

Susan Haley
