Good morning Peter,

To answer your question of broadband speed , yes it will be a lot faster than 24mb , with fibre to the prem you should get a guaranteed speed of 100mb .

Avinash,

It has been 3 weeks since my enquiry below and I am keen to progress things on this development.

Please can you come back to me with your response to my query below to confirm if your current proposals for this scheme will provide 'superfast broadband' which has a headline access speed in excess of 24mb or more?

Good afternoon Avinash,

There is a planning condition for this development stating that we must provide 'superfast broadband' which has a headline access speed in excess of 24mb or more. Based upon your current proposal please can you confirm that this will be achieved?
