Dear Mr Usher,

I write regarding your application. The 8 week expiry date for this application is the 8th May but the neighbour consultation period does not run out until the 10th May and we cannot make a decision before the 10th. I believe this was to do with delays in validating the application. I therefore write to request a small extension of time on the application until the 14th of May 2018. The decision would then go out on the 14th. Can you reply stating your agreement to this.

Kind Regards
