Good morning Paul,

I can confirm that no commencement notice is required when granted residential extension relief. You are not required to submit anything else.

Thank you for emailing though,

Kind regards,
Julie

Dear Julie,

Further to the confirmation received regarding the above application being granted Residential Extension Exemption from CIL, I would like to confirm my understanding that I am not required to issue a commencement notice CIL form 6 as this is a residential extension exemption.

Please advise and also confirm if any other actions are necessary prior to commencement of works, which are planned for mid March 2021 start.

Many thanks for your help in advance.

Kind Regards,

Paul
