Hi David,

I can confirm that this is the case.

Kind regards

David

Hi David,

Following our telephone conversation earlier today in relation to the above planning application are you able to confirm that the wording below reflects the position of Highways England in relation to this application;

"The withdrawal of the National Scheme (for the A27 improvements) from the roads programme does not affect the financial contribution and mitigation previously agreed towards the A27 in relation to this application."

Many thanks,
David
