Dear Paul,

I have obtained a legal opinion from our principal solicitor in respect of this case. I am unable to share this with you (I have asked them to provide a redacted public version and will send this on if they provide one). However, in short, the advice is that we are minded to refuse, firstly on the basis that the criterion of the accommodation being used in a 'particular season' is not satisfied and secondly as to whether the operations are within the same occupation.

Our solicitor suggests that you

- (1) Provide Authority (e.g. cases) to support your assertion that four separate seasons would be regarded as a 'particular season'; and
- (2) Provide more information as to the working arrangements involving other sites. We note that you did provide more information regarding this in the previous planning application when you estimated that the agricultural workers occupying Newlands Nursery would be engaged in work on the Newlands Site for an average of 85 to 90% of their daily working time. However, you have not included this in the CLP submission.

Kind Regards
