Dear Daniel

Just looking at the site plan and elevation drawings. Plots 96 & 97 on the site plan are labelled as having 4 beds but the only house type plans you have provided are all for 2 & 3 beds. I assume this is an error on the site plan and if so, can you change it and submit an amended plan to me with a new Rev number. I note that these houses are labelled as 4 beds on other submitted plans based on the layout but it is the proposed site plan that is most important to be altered.

If it not an error then I will need the house type plans for these two units.
