Dear Mr Clay,

I'm currently preparing the officer's report for the above application and have noticed an inconsistency in the proposed floor plan and the block plan. The extension is measuring at different lengths, it looks like the extension has been tacked onto the back of the conservatory rather than the back of the house on the block plan. Could you confirm which way you wish to proceed and amend the relevant plan. It can be sent directly to this email address.

Many thanks,

Kathryn Welch
