Julia,

I regret the late reply. The case has been sitting with my line manager, however, due to work pressures the 16th November decision deadline was unfortunately missed.

I can't apologise enough, amendments have now been made and I would like to request a final extension of time to 30th November this week?

Kindest of regards

Dear Stuart

I note that a decision has not yet been issued for the above application - the extension of time was granted until the 14th November.

Please could you let me know when the decision will be made?

With kind regards
