

Lebanese Cedar - crown reduction by reducing longest branches on north, east, south and west sides by 0.5m-1.5m to return the tree to an attractive and uniform shape. Cuts would be lessened higher towards the crown as to keep a rounded appearance without reducing height.

Townsend Trees