Hi Zac

I have left a voice message with you this morning, I have been awaiting planning permission for my VCO so have been on line to check the status.

It shows correspondence dating back to 25th September from West Sussex County Council with an issue to the parking bay size, under the driveway category, I am not sure how but they seem to have confused the actual VCO area with the parking bay as the parking bay is a lot bigger than the recommended minimum size.

Please let me know how we can get this addressed so we can hopefully move forward with this project at the earliest opportunity.

Kind regards
Steve
