

NOTES:

- 1. All dimensions are in mm and must be checked on site.
- 2. Drawings are to be read in conjunction with accompanying documents.
- 3. Any errors or inaccuracies should be brought to the attention of Amber Living.

- NOTES:
- Walls from porch removed, leaving roof and support from left hand side
  - New level threshold UPVC front door, widened to provide an 820mm clear opening
  - New concrete path with slight incline to create a level threshold entrance
  - Installation of galvanneal steel handrails 900mm above top level of ramped path

|                  |  |                                                                                                                                          |          |                                                                                                     |             |
|------------------|--|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------|
| Address:         |  | 67 Conbar AvenueRustingtonLittlehamptonBN16 3LZ                                                                              |          | Client: Mrs Helen Arthur-Worsop                                                                     |             |
| Drawing Title:   |  | Existing & Proposed Elevation                                                                                                            |          | Drawing Ref.: jbp/05/conbaravenue67                                                                 |             |
| Contact Details: |  | Telephone: 01273 410836                                                                                                                  |          |                                                                                                     |             |
| Contact Address: |  | Unit 3, Tungsten Building, George Street, Portslade, BRIGHTON, BN41 1RA                                                                  |          |                                                                                                     |             |
| Scale:           |  | Paper:                                                                                                                                   | Date:    | Revision No:                                                                                        | Checked By: |
| 1:100            |  | A3                                                                                                                                       | 21/06/17 | -                                                                                                   | dod         |
|                  |  | Planning ApplicationsBuilding Regulation DrawingsDesign ConsultantsParty Wall SurveysBuilding Surveys/ Homebuyers Survey |          | Project ManagementDisabled Access AuditingBuilding Defect AnalysisCDMExpert Witness |             |
|                  |  | amber                                                                                                                                    |          | RICS                                                                                                |             |
|                  |  | Email: deborah@amberliving.co.uk                                                                                                         |          |                                                                                                     |             |
|                  |  | N△                                                                                                                                   |          |                                                                                                     |             |

ARUN DISTRICT COUNCIL P12/24/17