Dear Ms Veaney and Mr Hammond,

It is unfortunately too late for me to substitute the documents for this application now. Should you wish to withdraw the current application and re submit at another time then please confirm this in writing, you get a free go at an application within 12 months of a withdrawal. Otherwise a decision will be made on the submitted plans.

Dear Kathryn

Many thanks for your email. Sorry it has taken a time to reply, we have been waiting for the builder and surveyor to come back to us.

We have come up with a slightly simplified design, in the hope it will reduce costs a bit, we are just waiting for the finalised drawing to send to you, hopefully that will be today.

Kind regards

Dear Ms Veaney and Mr Hammond,

Many thanks for your enquiry. Due to Finley changing jobs I have now been assigned this application for determination.

It depend on the nature of the changes you wish to make. If the new proposal will be larger or greatly changed from the submitted documents I suggest withdrawing this application and using your 'free go' for a new application once your new design is ready. A free go is applicable if a new application is submitted within 12 months, by the same applicant using the same redline site area.

If the changes will make the proposal smaller and you can get them to me on or before the 9th of August I can consider them as part of this application.

Just to note I am away from the 16th of August which is why I will not be able to consider any last minute changes.

Kind regards,

Kathryn Welch
