Dear Kathryn,
As per our telephone conversation please take this email as notification that I wish to withdraw application R/151/20/CLP.

Thank you for your help and guidance on this matter.

Regards

Alan Craven.

Dear Mr Craven,

Further to my telephone conversation with you last week when we discussed your application, I would be grateful if you could send me written confirmation that you wish to withdraw the application. If I do not receive this within the next few days I will look to refuse the application.

As discussed, I believe the proposed development would fall under a Householder application rather than a Certificate of Lawful Development due to the historic extensions on site.

Kind regards

Kathryn
