Thank you for your email. I am sorry but you have to submit the plans again, we cannot swap from one application to another. You need to provide the plans as requested in the legislation to enable us to accept the application. If they are not provided the application will be returned.

Yours sincerely

Nicola

Please find attached my re-submitted application to extend my home under permitted development. This application was previously submitted under the temporary legislation. There have been no changes to the drawings you already hold under application R/19/19/PDH

Regards
