Dear Anita

It has been brought to my attention that the D&A Statement for the above application, appears to be corrupted on the Planning Applications online site. I attach another copy for your reference and ask that this be added to the site and the other one removed accordingly.

Kind regards
Emma (on behalf of Kathryn who is on leave today)

Hi Kathryn

Just had a quick look online to see if anyone had made a comment regarding the application.

I noticed that the Design & Access Statement file seems to be corrupted and only shows symbols rather than text. Are you able to check the website your end to confirm. Please send another copy to the LA if it is corrupted.

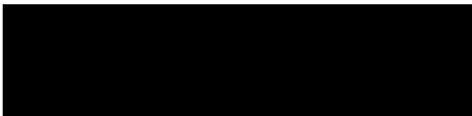

Kind regards

Stuart
