OTHER MATERIAL CONSIDERATIONS

CONCLUSIONS

The application proposed seeks permission for advertisement consent for an internally illuminated fascia sign at 130 The Street, Rustington.

Para. 67 of the National Planning Policy Framework (NPPF) states that 'advertisements should be subject to control only in the interests of amenity and public safety, taking account of cumulative impacts'. Para. 3.1 of the Councils adopted Supplementary Planning Guidance for adverts confirms that 'The display of outdoor advertisements can only be controlled in the interests of 'amenity' and 'public safety'. The control system in place for advertising is concerned with the visual effect on its surroundings of an advertisement.

In terms of public safety, it is vital to consider whether the advertisement itself or its location is likely to be so distracting or so confusing, that it creates a hazard, or endangers people in the vicinity who are taking reasonable care for their own, or others, safety. The siting coupled with the scale of the advert will ensure that it does not affect public safety. A condition of the approval will require the applicant to ensure that the advert is erected and maintained in good order to ensure it does not become a danger to those people visiting the site.

As for the visual impact, this is also considered to be acceptable. The proposed advertising is located on a shop frontage which is situated within an established shopping precinct. It is very similar to the previously approved internally illuminated fascia sign which was approved at the site in 2009 (R/153/09/A). It is also considered to be consistent with other illuminated advertisements in the vicinity which include Superdrug, Specsavers, Halifax and HSBC, which also have internally illuminated projecting signs.

It is considered that the proposed signs are in keeping with the commercial nature of the surrounding area. As such it is not considered that the proposed advertisements would have a significant impact on the visual amenities of the locality.

Further, the site being located within a commercial location coupled with commercial uses above means that the illumination would not have an adverse impact upon neighbouring uses or the locality.

The previous signage was not restricted in hours of illumination, but was limited in the intensity of illumination in the interests of highway safety. It is proposed to restrict similarly restrict this consent .

In the absence of harm to amenity or public safety, it is recommended that the application be approved, subject to the conditions set out below.
