Dear Zac,

I understand that you and the planning department as a whole are rather stretched at the moment, and as a generalisation I'm more than happy to agree an extension of time with you for this application. However can I just confirm the dates with you for this application as I feel it unfair on the Applicants if additional time was mistakenly lumped on.

By my reckoning the dates should be as follows;

Application validated 25th July, validation letter dated 28th August.
Statutory consultation period (21 days) ends on the 19th September (26th August-19th September)
Statutory determination is the 19th September (8 weeks from validation)

As the statutory periods for both the consultation and the determination both end on 19th September I don't know where the 27th as mentioned in the validation letter has come from. I would therefore be grateful if you could reconsider the extent of the extension of time to something more in line with the determination date above?

Many thanks

Kathryn

Dear Ms Welch,

As a result of delays in the validation process, the statutory advertisement period for this application runs until the 27th of September, therefore, it will not be possible to make a determination before this date. Please may I have an Extension of Time until the 5th of October 2018 in order to issue you with a decision?

Kind regards,

Zac Denton
