Dear Mr Syred,

Town & Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)
Town & Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015

Application for Planning Permission for Works or Extension to a Dwelling

Development: Erection of single storey rear extension to create orangery and creation of ensuite on first floor following the demolition of existing outhouse (This application may affect the setting of a listed building)

Location: Hobbs Farmhouse 36 Sea Lane Rustington BN16 2RE

Thank you for your recent application which I received on 28th July 2021. It is being validated by Ms Iqraa Malik who will be able to assist you should you have any questions.

I regret that I am unable to accept your documents as a valid application until the following item(s) have been received or resolved :-

Existing Plans

The windows on the existing front and side (south) elevations are inconsistent with the windows on the existing first floor plan. Please review and amend

Plans

The proposed south (side) elevation is inconsistent with the proposed ground and first floor plan. Please review and amend.

For further detailed information on validation requirements please go to our website and refer to the requirements list for this type of application: <https://www.arun.gov.uk/making-a-planning-application>
If you are unable to access the website, please contact this office so a copy can be sent to you.

Where the information requested above relates to a local validation requirement, you may request that the requirement is waived. The information requested should be reasonable having regard to the nature and scale of the proposed development and about a matter which it is reasonable to think would be a material consideration in determining the application. If you do not feel this is the case, you can serve a notice on the Council, specifying which particulars or evidence you do not consider meet this test of reasonableness. You must state which items you disagree with and set out the reasons why you hold the view, please quote the application reference in your letter or email. The Council will then consider your case and respond. It should be noted that there is no right to challenge the national requirements as these requirements are contained in planning legislation.

Please provide the above by 12th August 2021 or your application will be closed as incomplete and you will have to resubmit if you wish to proceed. If you have difficulty meeting this deadline please contact the above officer to discuss the matter.

If you made a paper application and did not provide an email address, please could you do so to enable us to contact you swiftly with any queries or issues.

Yours sincerely

Neil Crowther
Group Head of Planning
