Hi Anita

I just tried calling and left a message on your voice mail regarding the proposed extension at 84 Seaview Avenue, Rustington. The application is due a decision on 19/12/18 so I'm just emailing to check to see if there is any update on the application or whether you had any queries.

Additionally to avoid any confusion please note the application was made with the agent company name as CDMS Architects. Subsequent to the application being submitted CDMS Architects has rebranded and is now MortonScarr but continues to act as the agent for this application. All the contact information you have with the application will however continue to work during this application.

Kind Regards
