Dear Mrs Moxon,

I am the case officer dealing with your planning application. I am in the process of writing up my report for the application. Having studied the forms and plans submitted there appear to be some discrepancies. Stairs are indicated on the ground floor layout plan and space above the reception area at first floor exists and is utilised. A first floor layout plan is therefore required to be submitted as part of the application. In addition Q18 of the form refers to a gross internal floor area of 5,000 square metres, but the ground floor plan area measures 35.4m x 15.2m totalling 5,380 and the area of the first floor also needs to be added to this.

Without prejudice, I would therefore appreciate, as a matter of urgency, receipt of a first floor plan and an amended figure in response to Q18.

Regards
Anita Gardner
