Dear Juan

Yes, please do issue the decision.

Just as an aside, although you know the reason we are objecting, I do feel that once our design guide comes out, the proposed design would not be satisfactory. The complete contrast with the original house, and in my opinion poor design and large size, make it incompatible with the kind of design that would have sat more easily in the garden and behind the original property.

Kind regards

Isabel

Dear Cllrs.,

Committee resolved to provide the Group Head with delegated authority to issue a decision to refuse this application in conjunction with yourselves once the consultation period expired on the 10th March. No additional comments have been submitted to report to you since committee and as a result can you reply to this email to say that you are satisfied that a decision can now be issued?

Regards
