Dear Ms Welch,

Further to your call this morning, I am sending images of the rear of the property showing the 'garden room/shed' and also indicating approx where the new extension will be. Excuse the poor yellow drawing - I just used the edit tool on my phone! However hopefully you can see what will be a considerable gap between the existing building and the new extension. We have already removed about 2m of the existing building - the remaining roof rafters/tiles that still overhang will be removed imminently too.

I hope this clarifies the position but if you need anything further, please do not hesitate to let me know.

Best regards

Viv Young
