Dear Sir/Madam,

Town & Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)
Town & Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015

Application No: R/31/26/HH
Site Address: 15 Evelyn Avenue Rustington BN16 2EJ
Description of works: Single storey front porch and rear extension to replace the existing conservatory, proposed hip to gable extensions, a rear dormer, roof lights and side windows with obscure glass.

Thank you for your internet representation made on 25th March 2026 which has been recorded as an objection with the comments as follows:

OWPC82400

I would like to register an objection this application. The other houses in the area are all bungalows but this application will significantly increase the size of the house, to the detriment of the area generally. Bungalows are in high demand. Such a change to one of the bungalows will quickly set a precedent for other owners to apply to change the configuration of their house, leading to a gradual reduction in bungalows. I am obviously happy to live in a flat at the moment, but there may be a time I will need to move, and I want to be able to find a house that is suitable for elderly residents. There are many suitable two story houses already in the area, and being constructed. Allowing a change of this type will make it extremely difficult to find a suitable home of the right configuration, if and when the time comes.

Your views as made above will be considered before the application is determined.

Please be aware that Planning Services operate an 'open file' policy and will publish your comments including your name and address on the website. The website is updated once a day in the evening so it may take up to 24 hours for it appear on there. Please make sure that you have only provided information that you are happy will be published in this way. If you have supplied information belonging to a third party, you must make sure you have their permission to do so. If you do not wish your comments to appear on the website or on the file you will need to confirm this by emailing to planning@arun.gov.uk and I will arrange for it to be destroyed although this means that the content will then be disregarded.

The majority of applications are determined under delegated powers by officers. Further information on the decision making process can be found on the website at :<https://www.arun.gov.uk/what-happens-next>.

Some applications will be determined by the Planning Committee, and I shall write and inform you of the date of the meeting and the procedures for public speaking if this is the case. However, if your representation has been received after the agenda for the meeting has been finalised and the notifications have been generated, you will not receive notification. In this case, you will need to track the progress of the application on the council's website <https://www.arun.gov.uk/planning-application-search>

Any comments that are received after the agenda has been finalised will be separately reported to the members of the Planning Committee.

Regardless of how the application is determined I will notify you of the decision.

In the event of a subsequent written representations appeal, against a refusal of planning permission on a householder application any representations made on the application will be automatically forwarded to the Secretary of State. Unlike all other types of appeal, there will be no further opportunity to comment at the appeal stage.

Yours sincerely

Neil Crowther
Group Head of Planning
