Dear Sir/Madam

Town & Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)
Town & country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2010 (as amended)

Retention of garden wall.
1 Homefield Close Rustington

Thank you for your internet representation made on 24th February 2015 which has been recorded as 'support' with the comments as follows:

My family and i live in Homefield Close and have for several years. Number one had a wall which was in ill repair and a section of it had fallen down previously due to bad weather. At the boundary of the house was cement posts and chains and some very uneven paving slabs which really encouraged the weeds to grow making the area look unattractive. Part of the pavement right on the boundary had large holes. The property now has a very nice wall which has really improved the visual look of the close. The holes on the public footpath have been filled in very well and it will now be much less likely to encourage weeds to take hold. We are extremely happy with the improvement that Mr & Mrs Larkins have done to their house by putting this new wall up.

Your views will be considered before the application is determined and I shall write to inform you of any decision made.

Please be aware that if the application is to be determined by the Council's Development Control committee and your letter has been received at a late stage after the Agenda has been published you will not receive a separate letter notifying you of the date of the meeting and procedures for public speaking. In such circumstances it is recommended that you track the progress of the application on the Council's website or telephone the Council for further information. Please be advised that any comments you make that are not included within the Committee Agenda will be reported to the Members of the Development Control committee. Please also be aware that only a small number of all planning applications received go the Development Control Committee. Most are determined under delegated powers by Officers in which case your comments will again be considered before the application is determined.

Please be aware that Planning Services operate an 'open file' policy and will publish details of your comments on the internet on the Arun District Council Planning section. Please ensure that you only provide information that you are happy will be made available in this way. If you supply information belonging to a third party, please ensure you have their permission to do so. If you do not wish your comments to appear on the 'open file' please confirm this in writing and I will arrange for it to be destroyed although this means that its contents will then be disregarded.

In the event of a subsequent written representations appeal, against a refusal of planning permission on a householder application, any representations made on the application will be automatically forwarded to the Secretary of State. Unlike all other types of appeal, there will be no further opportunity to comment at the appeal stage.

Yours faithfully

Karl Roberts
